1. The Ancient Studies Program, composed of faculty from the departments of Anthropology, Art History and Archaeology, Classical Studies, History, Philosophy, and Religious Studies, offers on a competitive basis several Graduate and Professional Association Travel Grants (up to $300 per application) for conference or research related travel.

2. Applications are due Nov. 1 annually. Travel grants are restricted to events taking place during the fall, spring, or summer semester of the current academic year (e.g., FS 2012, SPS 2013, SS 2013). Retroactive applications for travel scheduled in the fall semester prior to Nov. 1 are eligible for funding, as are applications for travel scheduled after Nov. 1.

3. Applications should be approximately one page in length (single-spaced, 12-point font) and must include the following:

   a) A clear description of the event’s theme, location, and size, as well as its scope and importance and the extent of faculty participation
   b) A program or link to the event (preferably with a list of presenters)
   c) A clear description of the applicant’s role (presenter, respondent, presider, etc.) and the significance of participation for the applicant’s course of study or research
   d) Estimated expenses (conference registration, transportation, lodging, meals)
   e) Other sources of support (whether requested or confirmed)

4. Successful applicants must provide receipts in order to be reimbursed for their travel expenses. For details about the reimbursement process, please contact Ruth Erwin in the Graduate School: erwinr@missouri.edu

5. Submit applications (in PDF format) no later than 5:00 p.m. on November 1 to Anatole Mori, Ancient Studies Committee Chair: MoriA@missouri.edu

6. The Ancient Studies Committee will evaluate the applications and notify applicants of the results by the middle of November.
